Penh Penh-Kep: Unforgettable city and natural tour

Day 1: Travelling day: Departure from Siem Reap to Phnom Penh
Breakfast at hotel.
Depart from Siem Reap to Phnom Penh. Amazing feeling of the natural view on the road. Stop at Kompong Thom to visit the complex of Sompo Preahkak Temple. The temples of Sompo Preahkak constructed of solid brick, laterite and sandstone and decorated by bas-reliefs. So far, 140 temples have been discovered in the forest. Lunch at the temple site. Early evening proceed to the destination. Arriving and overnight in Phnom Penh.

Day 2: The heart of Cambodia: Phnom Penh City Tour
Morning: Breakfast at the hotel and then begin at the Royal Palace. You’ll see the Silver pagoda, which stores many of our national treasures such as the golden status, jeweled Buddha statues and the biggest crystal Buddha in the area. Rounding off the visit to the rest of the Royal Palace complex. Continue to visit National Museum. Lunch: at a local restaurant in town. Visiting the Toul Sleng Genocide Museum, home to the infamous S21 prison. This place is considered as the cruellest and inhumane torture/detention. Unimaginable scene of the condition in the former prison through the equipment that used to torture the victims and some paintings painted by the survivor of the regime. This place is the clearest evidence of the genocide regime call “The Killing Field” in Cambodia. Back to hotel for dinner and overnight.

Day 3: Phnom Penh-Kep: Pepper plantation accommodation
Morning breakfast and check-out hotel. Depart to Kep province. On the way, stop to taste local coconuts. Arriving the Pepper plantation and checking in to spend the night in the farm. Lunch served in the farm. It is to be remarked that this kind of Pepper is the first Cambodian product to benefit from the status of Protected Geographical Indication. Tourists are able to enjoy a very nature view at the farm. Personal time: Explore the farm activities on your own. Dinner prepared at hotel, taste the amazing and unforgettable food made from fresh Kep’s crabs with green pepper corn.

Day 4: Kep
Morning: Breakfast at hotel at the farm. Checking out and leave to Kep province. Along the way, stop to explore the caves in the province. Tourists can enjoy many different caves in the site. For instance, the cave at Phnom Sa sear, which is also known as the ‘White Elephant Cave’ located next to a colorful pagoda. The cave contains a shrine at the base of a limestone formation alleged to resemble a white elephant. Leave the site to have lunch at Kep town. After lunch, tourists are recommended to visit the crab market and enjoy dinner at local restaurant with delicious fresh seafood from the market. Back to hotel and overnight in Kep town.

Day 5: Rabbit Island
Morning: Breakfast at hotel. After breakfast, transferred to the most famous island in Kep province known as the “Rabbit Island”, called by local people as “Koh Tonsay”, is located about 4.5 kilometers southwest of Kep. Tourists are drawn to the two beautiful white sand beaches. The sea here is shallow and has a long slope, making Koh Tonsay excellent for swimming. At the sea bottom area a variety of corals, sea animals and plants which attract researchers and ecologists. Experience a whole day on the island. Late afternoon, coming back to hotel for dinner. Overnight at hotel in Kep town.

Day 6: Kep-Phnom Penh
Morning: Breakfast at hotel. Checking-out and ready to back to you Phnom Penh. You can be directly transfer to Phnom Penh International Airport and catch the evening flight back home.

Tel: +855 17 87 57 57
Email: tour@angkordiscover.com
tourmanager@angkordiscover.com
Website: www.angkordiscover.com